

Alaska Hunter Jumper Association, Inc.,
Supports The Eva Foundation

The Alaska Hunter Jumper Association, Inc. (AHJA) is a § 501(c)(3) non-profit organization run completely by volunteer members. Each year, AHJA puts on one horse show to benefit a different non-profit organization. In the past, we have supported Covenant House Alaska, the Stone Soup Group, and Abused Womens' Aid in Crisis, Inc. (AWAIC). In 2010, we were able to present a check for $4,185.00 to The Salvation Army's McKinnell House. We hope to do at least as well again, this year.

We have selected the The Eva Foundation as the beneficiary of our 2011 show. This worthy non-profit organization, governed by a Board of Directors, was founded to help survivors of abuse with personal care items such as eyeglasses, haircuts, dental work, and clothing. The mission of The Eva Foundation is to help survivors of abuse regain their self confidence and independence to build a better life. The foundation provides esteem-building necessities to help recovering survivors secure an abuse free future for themselves and their loved ones. In doing so, The Eva Foundation helps to fill a need which is not provided by other social service entities serving survivors of abuse.

Clients of The Eva Foundation must be referred by a qualifying agency, such as Abused Women Aid in Crisis (AWAIC) and must have separated themselves from their abusers. Once the above is verified, The Eva Foundation works with providers in the community to secure needed services for its clients to help them move positively towards future opportunities.

In 2010, the clients helped by The Eva Foundation more than doubled from 2009. The good news is that The Eva Foundation is now receiving more recognition from members of the community for referral purposes; the not so good news is there are even more clients who need help from this worthy foundation.

The Alaska Hunter Jumper Association, Inc., has greatly appreciated your past support. We hope you will support us again this year, as we organize another great horse show, this time to benefit the The Eva Foundation!
